Lynn Grove High School News

Lynn Grove High activities started with a large enrollment. Many familiar faces were seen back on the campus along with a number of new ones. To those new students we extend a hearty welcome and, we are happy to have the privilege of being your class mates and working with you.

Tuesday, the second day of our second school week, the seniors of Lynn Grove selected from 91 seniors the class officers that would have charge for the remaining school year. James Rogers, president of the junior class from last year, presided and the following class officers were elected: James Rogers, president; James Thomas, secretary; James Harnelle Harris, secretary; Hampton Erwin, treasurer; Lady Ruth Marine, class reporter. The seniors have also selected carnations as their class flower, and red, white and blue as their class colors. As yet the motto has not been chosen.

Thursday much anxiety was shown by the seniors when the glad news leaked out that the 1942 class rings were waiting for them. Much scrambling and collecting of "greenbacks" on the part of said seniors, was witnessed by the under class mates. Finally when the amount was raised the package was opened and each senior overjoyed, reached for the other fellow's ring. Now everyone is happy and efforts are being made to be extremely friendly, even to the extent that right arms are protruding from every corner on the campus. The seniors are planning to make this "the year" of happiness and success.

Other class officers elect are as follows:

Eighth grade: President, Freda Fay Mayfield; vice-president, Charles D. Butterworth; secretary, Naomi Broach; treasurer, Ray Rogers.

Seventh grade: President, R. L. Myers; vice-president, Leneth Rogers; secretary, Anna Paye Miller; treasurer, Joette Suiter.

Students in the first eight grades have received their free text books and they are endeavoring to make this one of the most successful years in the history of our school.

The grade department faculty lost two of its former members. They were Miss Treva Rogers and Mrs. Nellie Ruth Jones Caldwell.

BARNEY WEEKS Says:
"Tastes in smoking differ, I know, but they tell me Marvells are the biggest-selling cigarettes in their class. That means an awful lot of folks like Marvells' quality, and I'm one of them, believe me."

TRY Marvells. Ask yourself if you ever smoked a better cigarette at any price. Marvells are mild, really mild. Marvells are smooth. But with all their mildness and smoothness, they have a rich, round, satisfying taste that reaches deep down to let you know you're smoking... and make you glad you are!

need any help in selecting what to bring, or want to ask questions about this new listing (no single birds will be shown) better see R. E. Kelly at the Hatchery who can answer all the questions.

The hog and Jersey classes are classified the same as last year. Hogs will be penned in the Jack Farmer barn driveway, and the chickens will also be shown in that building.

If you have any questions about the dog show, better ask Hugh Melugin or John Curry. Someone who enjoys singing, and also likes dogs, should be prepared to sing the National Dog Song during the dog show.

Several merchants have already requested booth space in which to exhibit some special wares or seasonal merchandise. If you have any idea of using a booth this year, you had better leave your name at the Chamber of Commerce office as the space for booths is not as large as the last two years, hence the number of booths will have to be smaller in number. Each booth will be approximately 8x10 feet.

Several strictly educational exhibits are planned by various public organizations and these will be located in the Farmer barn. This year the Farmer barn, as now planned, will house the hogs, chickens, and educational displays, such as Safety Patrol, County Extension, T.V.A. County Health, etc., and the Woman's Department will be in the North room of the Farmer barn. The ice cream, cold drinks and food concession has been sold to "Homemakers' clubs who will serve a plate lunch as well as sandwiches and all other items usually sold at such a place.

We would like to have some reliable, energetic popcorn machine operator buy the popcorn rights. We would rather sell to some local person than to outside people who have asked to buy same.

We with some merchant would make a real display of curly combs and brushes for livestock. These two items, with plenty of elbow grease, will make the cattle, hogs, and horses show much better.

Just Fishin'

By A NATIVE SON

"DON'T WORRY, FISH!" IS WOMAN'S MOTTO

NORTH WALES, Pa. — Mrs. Anna Choyce, 92, is a candidate for the title of oldest woman fisherman.

Mrs. Choyce, with her sunbonnet and high-necked dresses, is a familiar sight along the banks of the Pennsylvania River fishing for catfish and bass.

She keeps a photograph album of her prize catches, which include a 25-inch, 10-pound catfish and a 12-inch, 5-pound catfish. Occasionally she goes deep sea fishing with a son.

"Don't worry — go fishing," is her recipe for longevity.

A creek is a thrill that used to be an inspiration.
